

Teaching and Learning Seminar

Science Gallery

10th November 2016

#conul @conultl

Programme

10:00-10:30 Registration, Tea/Coffee Paccar Theatre

10:30-10:45 Welcome and Introductions

10:45-11:30 Planes, Trains and Automobiles: Which Way to the Future?:
Professor Mark Brown, National Institute for Digital Learning

11:30-12:00 CONUL Teaching & Learning Award
2015 Winner: Peter Reilly, UL
2016 Winner: Presented by Dr. Claire McGuinness, UCD

12:00-13:00 Lightning Talks 1

Building blocks on blackboard: an approach to information skills support:
Jessica Eustace-Cook, TCD

Creating LIST Online: enhancing student learning using online interactive
tutorials: Aine Carey, MU

Becoming Functional: Developing a Generic Information Skills Offering in the Context of an Academic Skills Team: Kristopher Meen, NUIG

From specified role to task-based working – moving beyond our traditional comfort zones: Cathal Kerrigan, UCC

13:00-14:00 Sandwich Lunch

14:00-14:45 Fighting Words Empowering Students: Sean Love, Fighting Words

14:45 – 16:00 Lightning Talks 2

‘Pop Up and Pop In’. New Initiatives in Library Orientation: Dr Nessa Collinge and Niall O’Brien, UCD

The Challenges and Joys of delivering blended Information Literacy programmes: The DIT Experience: Israel Chidavaenzi and Sarah-Anne Kennedy, DIT

Supporting Ethics in Data Research: Reflections on a Student Capstone Journey: Lauren Brochu and Alison Cox.

Embracing the Digital Classroom: Jayne Dunlop, UU

Student Employability and Libraries – a career advisor’s perspective: Dave Kilmartin, DIT Careers Service

16:00 Seminar Close