

Effective Use of Technology to Support Teaching & Learning

PROGRAMME

Date of Seminar: Thursday 15th March 2018

Venue: Dublin Institute of Technology, Aungier Street, Dublin 2, Library Training Room

Course: CONUL T&D 2018:01

- 10:00 Arrival and registration
- 10:20 Welcome and introduction
- 10:30 (1) Why use technology to support teaching & learning? Pauline Rooney, DIT Learning Teaching & Technology Centre (LTTC)
- (2) Using technology to support collaborative learning. Pauline Rooney, DIT LTTC
- 11:30 Tea/Coffee break
- 11:50 Screencasting: Understanding the benefits of screencasting. A hands-on workshop using a variety of screencasting tools. Frances Boylan, DIT LTTC
- 12:50 Lunch will be provided at the seminar venue.
- 13:30 e-Assessment & Feedback: What is e-assessment? What do you need to consider when designing e-Assessment? Caitriona Ní Shé, DIT LTTC
- 14:30 Keeping students engaged with technology (polling & other tools). Frances Boylan, DIT LTTC
- 15:30 Snapshot presentations by librarians from member institutions
Classroom Tech I've tried at NUI Galway Library Kris Meen, NUIG Library
Maynooth University library's experience of trialling Turning Point Niall O'Brien, MU Library
- 16:00 Closing remarks and course evaluation

Final programme will be posted online closer to the seminar date.

Seminar organiser on behalf of CONUL Training and Development:

Allison Kavanagh, Dublin Institute of Technology allison.kavanagh@dit.ie 01-4023067
with Niall McSweeney, Chair CONUL Teaching & Learning